

NOTIFICATION OF VOLUNTARY PRODUCT RECALL

America's Food Technologies, Inc. (dba AMFOTEK) of Tinley Park, Illinois is announcing a voluntary recall of some of its products because they contain an ingredient from a supplier who found salmonella contamination in its plant.

None of America's Food Technologies' products have been found to be contaminated, and none are suspected of causing illness.

The potential for contamination was discovered by Plainview Milk Products Cooperative, the supplier of the potentially affected ingredients.

The safety of our products is always our top priority. Therefore, we wish to emphasize that we are voluntarily taking this action solely out of an abundance of caution and to comply with our supplier's request.

The affected products – distributed to our customers nationwide - that pertain to White Coffee are listed below. These products bear Best By Dates PRIOR TO June 25, 2010.

Item # 652300699 Original
Item # 652500699 Hazelnut
Item # 652100699 Mocha

No AMFOTEK products other than those expressly cited above are included within this recall.

All of the recalled product should be segregated and taken out of use. They should be marked appropriately and separated from other products so that they will not be used. These products should be clearly marked for return to AMFOTEK.

We will contact you to talk about disposition and making arrangements as soon as possible for replacement product. Further information regarding the matter can be obtained by contacting Ed Morgan (708) 532- 1222 ext. 114.

We apologize for any inconvenience this matter has caused and we will work diligently with you to minimize any disruption.
