Market Alerts

PEPPERS & EGGPLANT Extreme heat in California's growing region, and field transition from the Southeast to Midwest, has limited supplies of Green and Red Bell Peppers. Pricing is higher than normal on all sizes and grades, with good to fair quality reported. Eggplant is in a similar situation for the Western half of the country.

AVOCADOS Pricing remains very high on all sizes and grades of Avocados due to prolonged issues with the Mexican crop. Consider using #2 product where possible.

POTATOES As the storage crop winds down over the summer, Idaho 90 CT potatoes and smaller are the best buy. Quality is good on all sizes.

APPLES Some varieties are running low on small fruit, with Granny Smiths and Golden Delicious being the most impacted. Fujis and Galas are good cost alternatives where smaller sizes are needed.

RASPBERRIES / BLACKBERRIES Supplies continue to be limited due to extreme heat in California. Pricing is higher than normal, with fair quality reported. Blueberries and Strawberries are both good cost and quality alternatives.

ASPARAGUS All sizes of Asparagus are very limited due to harvest issues in the major growing areas: Heavy rain and low overnight temps in Central Mexico, and field transition in Peru. Pricing is much higher than normal, with good to fair quality reported.

A Peek at Peak Seasons

Locally Grown Products: The local growing season is in full swing around the country—the perfect time to support local agriculture! Be sure to ask your distributor for their full list of locally grown recommendations, and look for these farm-fresh products this week!

Cherries: Cherry season has begun, with harvests out of Washington and Oregon. Bing and Rainier varieties — ask your distributor for recommendations!

Cucumbers: Quality and pricing are excellent on all sizes and grades of field-grown Cucumbers, with locally grown product available in most regions.

Corn: Corn on the Cob is in peak season, with great quality and pricing reported. Locally grown product is available in many regions including New Jersey, Indiana, Long Island and Virginia.

Blueberries: Harvests are peaking out of Oregon, Washington, Michigan and New Jersey. Excellent quality and pricing are reported.
