

MODERN FOOD SERVICE

www.gccomm.net

YOUR PREMIER NEWS ADVANTAGE

Volume 20 • Issue 2

www.modernfoodservice.com

February 2009

Lessing's Honored At ACFLI Culinary Excellence Gala

The American Culinary

*Chris Neary CEC, CCA, AAC,
president of ACFLI*

Federation Long Island Chapter

(ACFLI) recently presented Lessing's with the "Culinary Excellence Award"—presented each year to a Long Island company that promotes culinary professionalism in every aspect of their business. Lessing's received the award in recognition of the outstanding contributions that their company continues to make not only in the food service industry, but in helping Long Island's businesses, individuals and communities.

The event was attended by the region's top food industry leaders, chefs and restaurant professionals. In addition, ACFLI presented awards in a number of different categories within the culinary field—including "Chef of the Year"—awarded to Andrew Whitcomb,

(Continued On Page 14)

Lessing's Honored

(Continued From Page 1)

executive chef of Whitsons Culinary Group.

The gala took place at The Fox Hollow in Woodbury, NY and featured dishes from around the world as well as an extravagant dessert presentation.